Pictured above is the Northeast Outreach and Support Services at the Melfort Mustangs hockey game holding their first of three 'Give a blanket for a family Share the Warmth project.' In their first night at the rink they Collected 29 blankets. Alana Kewley, Shelter Manager talked about what the Share the Warmth grant mean to the organization. "To us it means a way we can give back to our community because they're very supportive of our non-profit organization and as we get into the holiday season it allows us to keep some families warm on a night they might need it."
